STANDING UNCHANGED

No Votes Counted This Week but Several Thousand Issued

Contestants Working Hard and the People Taking Interest

Owing to the fact that The Parker Mercantile Co. was closed last week the votes cast in the contest were not counted this week and the figures will stand as last week. A large number of votes were cast last Thursday and Friday after the votes had been counted and are now in the ballot box and will be counted next Wednesday. Also there have been several thousand votes issued on a receipt of a description to the Advocate which have not yet been deposited but the girls are working just as hard and by next Wednesday will have a large number to drop in the ballot box which may change the standing of the contestants all the way round. Watch for the announcements next week, there will be new names on the list and you never can tell who is going to win. Help your favorite win this beautiful $400.00 Patek Calibre. It is a beauty and is guaranteed for 25 years. It does not cost you anything to vote, so why not help your friend win? The girls are selling their goods at the same old prices and the votes are given free with every purchase amounting to 25 cents or more. They also give votes at the rate of two votes for each one cent paid on accounts made prior to January 1st, 1912. Get in line and trade with The Parker Mercantile Co. and subscribe for the Advocate $1.00 per year—100 votes for each $1.00.

Rules Governing

the Contest

Rule 1.—This contest is open to any lady, child, church, Sunday school or lodge, and will run approximately six months.

Rule 2.—The votes will be counted every Wednesday evening at six o'clock by a disinterested committee appointed by the contest manager, and the results published in the Mountain Advocate the same week.

Rule 3.—No employee of the Parker Mercantile Co., or the Mountain Advocate will be allowed to enter in this contest.

Rule 4.—Any candidate whose vote fails to increase in two weeks at any time will be dropped from the contest and their votes thrown out and not allowed to count for any one.

Rule 5.—No votes will be allowed to be solicited by any candidate or any of their friends inside the store of the Parker Mercantile Co.

Rule 6.—Votes will be given on all purchases amounting to 25 cents and upwards at the rate of one vote for each one cent of purchase, or 100 votes for each $1.00 paid either on back subscription, renewal or paid in advance subscription to the Mountain Advocate. Or 200 votes for each one dollar paid on all accounts made at the Parker Mercantile Co., prior to January 1st, 1912.

Rule 7.—All votes must be deposited in the presence of one of the contest managers, and must be voted upon a ballot furnished for that purpose and not countersigned by a representative of the Parker Mercantile Co., or

ROBERT W. COLE

Mr. Cole was on last Sunday appointed Trustee of the Jury Fund of Knox County, succeeding John A. Black. He is cashier of the First National Bank of this city, and is also Treasurer of Knox County having held this office for more than a year.

Chas. D. Cole, as editor of the Mountain Advocate.

Rule 8.—All votes must be deposited at the time of purchase and must remain in the possession of the Parker Mercantile Co., until the contest closes, and no votes will be allowed to be transferred from a retiring candidate to any other contestant or any one.

Now is the Time To Subscribe

A man who was too economical to purchase or to subscribe for a paper sent his little boy to borrow the copy taken by his neighbor. In his haste the boy ran over a $4 stand of bees and in ten minutes looked like a warty summer squash. His father who ran to his assistance and, failing to notice a barbed wire fence, ran into that, cutting a handful of flesh from his anatomy and ruining a $4 pair of pants.

The old cow took advantage of the gap in the fence and got into the cornfield and killed herself eating green corn. Hearing the racket, the wife ran out, upset a four gallon churn full of rich cream into a basket of kittens, drowed the entire litter. In her haste she dropped a $25 set of false teeth. The baby, having been left alone, crawled through the spilled milk and into the parlor, running a brand new $20 carpet during the excitement the oldest daughter ran away with the hired man, the dog broke up eleven setting hens and the calves got out and chewed the tails off a four line shirt.

DOINGS OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

The work of the State Senate and Legislature is going slowly along with very little work being done so far worthy of mention.

Senator Goodworth has introduced a "Good Roads Bill" which was referred to the committee on Public Roads and Highways and Senator Eaton introduced "The Direct Primary Election Bill," which was also referred to a committee.

The name of Hon. Wm. F. Parker appears on five important committees, namely:

Public Libraries; Public Health; Public Roads and Highways; Racing Commission; Ways and Means.

When it is considered that the Legislature is overwhelming

Demure tie, it will be seen that Mr. Parker was highly complimented by being placed on such important committees as the Public Roads and Highways, and Ways and Means.

Mr. Parker writes that he is giving his best attention to the Good Road, Better Schools, and Fair Redistricting bills.

On last Saturday a bill was introduced in the Senate giving Knox and Whitley Counties each a representative should this bill become a law. Whitley will be in District No. 6 and Knox in No. 18.

Dante's Inferno Here

A rare treat is promised the lovers of literature on tonight and Saturday evening at the Union College where will be presented for the first time in this part of the State Dante's Divine Comedy Classic, "The Inferno."

As one gazes upon this wonderful masterpiece of Moving Picture Art, it can hardly be realized how such a gigantic task was accomplished.

When the idea of producing this noble but exceedingly difficult work was first suggested, met with a storm of objections and criticism. It was pointed out that such a task would cost tens of thousands of money, that there were only a half dozen artists living in the principal parts of the production could be so interested, that many of the scenes would be "infernal" require hundreds of special effects, a lion, a wolf, serpents, etc., that it would be impossible to carry out the idea. But the idea of the descending from one pit to another and such things as these, and the fact of having such a masterpiece as that of "The Inferno," on the screen, or the giants, or the dragons, or the devils, the possibilities of the scene at New York, the most famous artists who were known to the world, to bring the scenes and features of Dante's Inferno to the masses, under the work of the great artist, with a patience and perseverance which would not be discouraged after many failures and after many had been sent in this industry or two or three scenes were at last successfully produced. These scenes were among the best in the entire book and they were shown to the most prominent Dante societies through out Europe and to most of Europe's leading Dante societies. The directors were so changed in to entice such helpers and the office and the studio of the Motion Picture Company became a center for painters, sculptors, musicians, scholars, poets and authors, all lending their eager aid to the completion of the work and our country began.

COURT NEWS

Several Important Cases Tried This Week.

Special Judge I. H. Therman, of Springfield, on Bench

This week's term of court was presided over by special Judge I. H. Therman, of Springfield, Ky., the court of Judge Sampson being employed as an attorney for the day. The first case was the case of John Williams indicted for murder. This case was tried on Monday and Tuesday, the case being given to the jury late Tuesday afternoon. The jury could not reach a verdict and after having the case until Thursday noon were dismissed.

The case of Ino. M. Tinsley & Co. vs. J. M. Wilson & Co. in which the plaintiff made motion for an injunction restraining the defendant, as mayor, from calling for the election of a successor to Dr. I. S. Lock as councilman of Barbourville. He fore pressing upon the election and qualification of I. M. Tinsley, was begun Tuesday afternoon before special Judge Therman who decided that it would have to be tried out on its merits. No decision had been reached at the time we go to press.

In the important cases tried last week Jas. Taylor, charged with having carnal knowledge of a female under 16 years, was convicted and his penalty is from 10 to 20 years in the penitentiary.

In the case of Frank Hanson, charged with murder of his Gray, at Elly, there was a hung jury, 11 men standing for conviction and one for acquittal.

One McKee (colored) who to some extent another negro, overpowered the white jailer Davis, and escaped. He was captured by Andrew Miller and returned to jail was tried for robbery and given from 2 to 10 years.

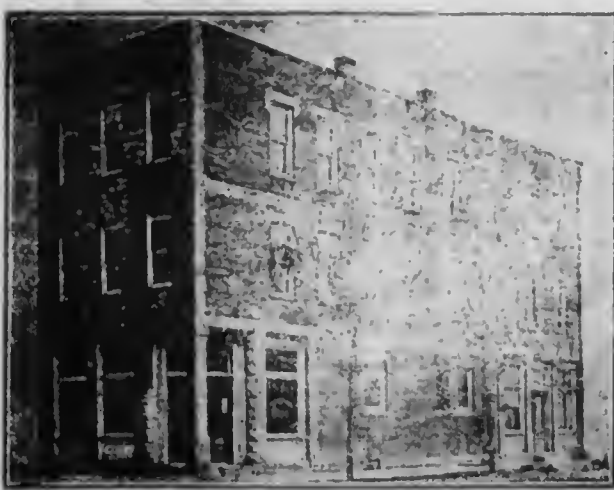

Local Ad Entertains

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Barbourville Branch of the Ladies' Aid Society, held their annual spelling bee on Tuesday evening and if you were not present you missed a very interesting and nice combination of games have taken the place of the former ones. The floor was carpeted and painted and a new gas stove installed. A large crowd was present and everybody eager to begin. The captains were chosen and the lines soon formed. Prof. B. C. Lewis was chosen pronouncer. The first prize of $5.00 was won by the team of Mrs. C. C. Powers, of the Barbourville Library.

The spelling contest and interesting results announced as follows: The spellers had been divided into two teams and it was agreed that the team which won forward and spell the words in the large dictionary. The team of Mrs. C. C. Powers won the present this year. It is the custom of the society to give one every year to the team of January, and the team of January, and do not forget to come to some of the hard words in the spelling book.

One Dollar Per Year in Advance

The Official Organ of the Republican Party in Knox County.

On the fourth page of this issue appears a full page display statement of The H. T. Hackney Co's showing their business for the year 1911, and increase over year 1910, also showing the increase each year in their business since its establishment in 1891. This is one of the oldest and most reliable wholesale grocery houses in the south and their steady increase and prosperity in business is due to their progressive, hustling and honest methods of conducting their business. It is a custom of this company to, at the beginning of each year have published a statement showing the amount of business done by them during the previous year and last year showed an increase of $55,248.91 over the year 1910, or the largest sales any year since their establishment.

Belin' An Editor.

Most anyone can be an editor. All the editor has to do is sit at a desk six days out of the week, four weeks of the month, and twelve months of the year and "edit" such stuff as this:

"Bill Jonts of Cactus Creek let a can opener slip last week and cut himself in the pantry."

"A mischievous lad of Pike-town threw a stone and struck Mr. Pike in the alley last Tuesday."

"John Doe climbed on the roof of his house last week looking for a leak and fell striking himself on the back porch."

"While Harold Green was escorting Miss Violet Wise from the church social last Saturday night a savage dog attacked them and bit Mr. Green several times on the public square."

"Isaiah Trimmer of Running Creek was playing with a cat Friday when it scratched him on the veranda."

"Mr. Fong, while harnessing a broncho last Saturday, was kicked just south of the corn crib."

Progress In Wireless Telegraphy

Marconi rejoiced when, in 1897, he succeeded in sending a wireless message a distance of three miles. By 1907 he had established regular wireless communication across the Atlantic. Since then vessels have been "picked up" at sea from shore stations at distances of from 2000 to 4000 miles. In November last Marconi sent a message from the Colosso Station, in Italy, to the Glace Bay Station in Nova Scotia, 4000 miles. The San Francisco operator, a month earlier, covered for a period of fifteen minutes with the Japanese station on the Island of Hokkaido, a distance of 6000 miles. Wireless communication, it is expected, will be opened up between Italy and Argentina with the completion of the new station at Buenos Ayres. The air line distance between these stations will be 7000 miles. The installation of wireless apparatus on ships is being gradually extended. Until recently few vessels outside of warships and steamers of the liner class have been so equipped. Now various countries are by legislation compelling many smaller passenger-carrying craft to install such apparatus. Great Britain is reported to be planning the establishment of a chain of wireless stations to encircle the Globe. This is to be a subsidized system under the control of the Post Office Department. Such a chain of stations would give England wireless connection with her colonial possessions in various parts of the world, making her independent of cables which are liable to be cut in time of war.—American Review of Reviews for Jan.

Don't be a Tumbledown

Take the Farm Journal

MANY a farmer will tell you he never knew how much bigger crops he could raise until FARM JOURNAL put it into his head to work more with his brains.

This great little paper is always nudging farmers up to make more money. Pleasant but persistent, it works at you year after year to raise larger crops, finer horses and cows, heavier hogs, bigger apples and potatoes, and shows you just HOW to do it.

FARM JOURNAL ("cream, not skim-milk") is 34 years old, and has over 750,000 subscribers, more than any other farm paper published. Its four million readers (known as "Our Folks") are the most intelligent and prosperous country people in the world, and are always saying FARM JOURNAL helped to make them so. It is clean, "boiled down," full of practical wisdom, gumption, fun and sunshine. It believes in order, thrift, kindness, comfort, and happiness, and it has old Peter Tumbledown always ready to show how NOT to run a farm.

"Our Folks" have comfortable homes, modern buildings and machinery, light roofs and fences, gates that swing free, sound horses, well-dressed and happy wives and children, and money in bank. Their potatoes are the largest, their milk tests the highest, their hogs weigh most, their fruit brings the best prices. Live farmers everywhere find this out, and they want the FARM JOURNAL.

Subscribe now, and get with the paper any of these famous

Money-making Secrets.

These great illustrated booklets are all stories of success in farming, and they tell you the methods that won it.

Poultry Secrets is a unique collection of the secret methods and tricks of successful poultrymen. It gives Felch's famous mating chart, represented for years, the famous method of securing 50 per cent. more pullets than hatched. It gives a method of insuring fertility, with priceless secrets of raising, feeding, and feeding, how to produce winter eggs, and managers of great success in raising poultry.

Horse Secrets exposes the methods of "hishopping," "plugging," "coaching," "legging," "doping," and other tricks of "gyna" and swindlers. It enables any one to tell an unsound horse. It also gives many valuable feeding, training, breeding and veterinary secrets.

Corn Secrets is the great NEW book of Prol. Holden, the "Corn King." It tells how to get ten to twenty bushels more per acre of corn than is produced in other valuable stock-feeding elements. Wonderful photographic plates show every process plan.

THE MILLION EGG-FARM tells how J. M. Foster, in the New Jersey nine-month season, raised 1,000,000 eggs from 100 hens. It tells why ducks pay the highest prices for eggs, and how to raise them.

THE "BUTTER BOOK" tells of seven cows that produced half a ton of butter each per year (20 pounds per cow average). An eye-opener for dairymen. Get it, and you will get a good one into record-breakers.

GARDEN GOLD shows how to make your back-yard supply you with fresh vegetables and fruit from 10 to 20 square feet, and get cash for your surplus produce. It tells when and how to plant, cultivate, harvest and market everything.

DUCK DOLLARS tells of the great Weber duck-farm near Boston. Every year they sell over 400,000 ducklings at a net profit of 100 cents each. Tells why ducks pay the highest prices for eggs, and how to raise them.

Any one of these splendid booklets, both for $1.00

(And if you subscribe NOW, before the price goes up, and tell us where you live, we will send you also Peter Tumbledown, a cartoon of a great success, brought down to date, placed with a new and whole lot for the farmer.)
